In pursuance to Brigade Order of the 17th of August instant. The Regiment of Militia commanded by Lt. Colonel Com^d. Van Cortlandt is ordered to parade for Annual Review and Inspection properly armed and equipped on Friday the Eleventh day of October next at Nine O'clock in the morning at or near the old meeting House in York Town previous to which the Commandant orders the Regiment to parade by Battalions. Captains Ryaley Hyatts, Jacobs, Taylor, Travis and Nathaniel Hyatts ^{Companies} to be one Battalion and to rendezvous properly armed and equipped at the House of Hercules Lents in the Town of Cortlandt on Friday the Twenty Seventh Day of September next and to be commanded by Major Jacob Montross. And Captains Sherwood's, Lewis Brown's, Garrison's, Ferriss (Pate Crispey) and Aaron Brown's Companies to be the other Battalion and to rendezvous properly armed and equipped at the House of William Green in the Town of Somers on Saturday the Twenty eighth day of September next and to be commanded by Major Nathaniel Montross -

Each Battalion is ordered to rendezvous at Nine

Observe in the morning

The Field and Staff Officers are required to attend Last Battalion parade —

The Commandant with pleasure expresses his entire satisfaction of the orderly behaviour of the Regiment at the last Annual Review and Inspection and flatters himself that the same strict order and regularity will be observed at the ensuing Battalion and Regimental parades —

The Commandants of Companies will take notice that the time of the Battalion and Regimental Parades will be formed precisely at Ten O'clock —

The Commandants of Companies are directed to make prompt returns after the Annual Inspection of all Delinquents at their respective parades as well Company Battalion as Regimental to the Court Martial which will be instituted for the Trial of such Delinquents. And that any may be induced to neglect their Duty from the clemency of the Commandant in remitting many of their fines imposed by the late Court Martial for Delinquencies. The Commandant thinks proper to admonish such and assure them that no fine hereafter will be remitted without the most satisfactory reason —

The Officers of the Regiment are required to meet at the House of Thomas Tompkins in the Town of York Town on Saturday the twenty first day of September next at Eleven O'clock in the forenoon for military improvement and are desired to bring with them their commissions in order to determine the Rank of the Officers & the several Commandants of Companies are requested to notify their Officers accordingly —

By order of the Lt Colonel Commandant
