

My dear Emma -

I am afraid in choosing a hipket for you without your trying it on, it might not fit you - I therefore beg you will choose for yourself - those I saw were at Arnold & Hannis in Canal St. next to the corner of Mercer - They were grey at 11 dollars but he had various kinds at all prices.
I thought too you might change your mind and wish something else - Your cousin David desired me to buy something for you, but I will also add his trifle to mine - I therefore enclose you $20. I hope soon to see you in an evening - when we meet, I must fix upon one when Mary & Phil: will be disengaged to join you with, I hope, Julia.

Yrs truly F. C.
