[illegible][illegible]

When the wild drake craves its lonely brood
And the Painter's eyes from the coast gleam
My Lady! I woo her in lonely dells
When the Heron looms its wings about,
When droops the birch with its tasselled bells
And damp on the breezes the trout about.

Learn Quatren is not her name
Nor Sue nor Kate did her Thouders call her and thought she was a full many a flower
Lover or Dancer did from the heart
My paper's up - kiss the two masters as for me and believe me even affectionately from C. F. H.
