

Isaac Stover -

enlisted in Col. Lewis Du Bois Regiment - Captain John Barnetts Company - in July 1780 for three months and served his time - - - -

Enlisted in ~~Company~~ in Col. Wieripeto Regiment the first of May 1782 and was immediately detached to ~~Colonel Philip Van Cortlandt~~ ~~com-~~ ~~manding~~ the 2^d N York Regiment commanded by Col. Philip Van Cortlandt which Regiment was then posted at Compton - I was detached to Lieut. James Johnson ~~Company~~ Command and marched to the Block House in Smiths Cove and were continually scouring the mountains to detect the Refugees and mail Robbers, that in one of our Scouts killed Lagalere & wounded ^{two} others which were afterwards found dead Stover was the Soldier who shot Lagalere - Laga-lere's party had ~~two~~ taken two Continental Soldiers before this and a Mr Hurd, took the Arms & Cloathing from the Soldiers which ^{Arms} were taken when Lagalere was killed and the others wounded, those Arms were given up to the Regiment - The Regiment marched from Compton to Fort Mifflin point. When Lieut Johnson was ordered to join leave the Block house and join the Regiment at Fort Mifflin point I remained with the Regiment ^{in service} until the first of January when my time of Enlistment was expired

