

Sir /

On my Arrival at New York, I wrote to you, & let you know, that the Intricacy of my Affairs had made it Necessary, for me: to put Every thing belonging to me, into the hands of Mr John Watts: Attorney at Law: New York: I then Requested you to lend to him, that bond Jonathan Bayles, had given me: & also to let him know what Money you had Received of Samuel Baker: & also to send the lease of Thomas Nicols & Abigail his Wife, also your Account against me, I now once more make the same Request to you: & that you will also let him know soon as I want my Affairs to be settled: I beg therefore, on the Receipt of this you will comply with the Above Request: & either send them to my letter or Mr J. Watts immediately: & let him know what sort of A Receipt you gave Baker, & what moneys you Received of him, & how apply'd: as I long to have my Affairs once more, in A Good way: you will also send him, the bond Against Judge Purdy, & Abraham Knozes Order of $9 I hope you wont fail to Do it: as I cannot get my matters Regulated: Untill Mr John Watts, has them before him: I hear you was Affronted at my Desiring Coll Burr: to Assist you in my suit, with Bayles: but surely, it cou'd not give you offence, to employ A man of Judgment, to Assist you in so very Intricate A matter: I am with Respects to your Papa & Mama, brother, & Mr W: & Dan Wyck,

March 7th 1789

Pierre Dan Cortlandt Jun: P^r

Your Affectionate
Cousin Stephen D. DeLancey

Pierre Van Cortlandt Jun^r Esquire

Mrs DeLancey

Croton River
Or Specks Hill

Stephen DeLancey
1789