

Paris Aug 13th 1825 - Memorandum of our agreement made this day between John Howard Paine & Stephen Price - Mr Paine agrees to furnish & deliver to Mr Price or his order in London Ten pieces translated from the french theatres & adapted for representation in New York ~~York~~, the pieces to be selected with his best judgment from those produced in the next twelve months & delivered within that period - for which Mr Price agrees to pay Fifty pounds at the present time Fifty pounds on the 13th Dec & fifty pounds on the 13th Feb next, and to pay the expense of copying the music & transporting the pieces to London - Mr Paine is to deliver four pieces previous to the second payment & four or more previous to the last - Should any ~~diff~~ difference of opinion arise respecting the meaning & construction of this agreement reference is to be made to W W Irving whose ^(Washington)

decision upon the question shall be binding upon the parties —

The first payment on the within has been made by an order on John Miller of London

L. Prill

John Howard Payne

The

(ghs)
mentions Washington Irving