James Chatterton you may sell the calf on my account and take the money for your own use Then you may have the milk of the Cow for this Season for what it shall be worth The Oxen to Run untill Harvest and not to be Worked at any Rate Whatsoever If you take the Stears you may use them untill the fall or to the first of November, then to be Brought to me to be wintered and you may have them again if it be so agreed and you stay on the place Harmanus Gardiner if you like you may have a pair of Stears untill fall and use them to the yoke untill November next but if you keep them the next ^{winter} in good order you then may keep them to the first of November following. Say November 1813

Following the number 1013 may keep them in the first of November then the best of good order you then until November but but of your best until fall and use them to the year like you may have a pair of them for more for advice of you to agree and you stay on the place

as ought to be to be wintered and the first of November then to be use them until the fall or to

If you take the trees you may be worked at any rate whatsoever to turn until autumn and not to what it shall be worth the tree the work of the year for this season for

James ~~Watt~~ and may take the left
