

My dear Madam

I return you M.D. with many thanks for the pleasure of perusing it. but with regret that you should have deemed it necessary to submit it to my examination.
I think the scene a very touching one, & its with much beautiful simplicity. The truth that "fact is stranger than fiction" appears from the circumstance that the very objection which struck me on the first reading was that such apposite quotations in the last hours of life, were hardly natural. On perusing again your note, I observed what had before been overlooked that the dialogue is founded on fact.

Wishing you much success in your literary employments & that God will prosper by which all shall be glorified to the service of your God.
I remain very respectfully

Yours
W. R. Williams
