Dear Friend,
I have just received your letter of the 23rd inst. & am glad to hear from you. I am very busy at present but will send it off to you. Let Mr. Eliason be looking here the day or two that she told me you were having a high old time.
Your letter confirms. Have you any news of that charming little girl? I am just here, miserable at not yet being demolished.
I have heard of the awful tragedy of an American.
