

Albany March 3^d 1776

My dear Mr. Roman & Cornue

I am again Informed that you have Engaged Weavers, ^{Joiners} Taylors, Blacksmiths and others utterly Incompetent to the Carpenters business If this be a fact you have abused my Confidence and broken your promise And don't deserve to be Employed, but as I do not wish to condemn unheard I have desired the ^{respectable} Committee of School Study and such Gentlemen of Congress as may be Intown to Examine into It, and to discharge all such men as ^{by} they shall be judged unfit for that service ~~Disapprove of~~, and to name others whom you are to Employ, I have also Impowered them If you dislike this arrangement to dismiss you and procure other Master Carpenters. It will be better for you to call on me on the subject as the whole matter will now rest ^{on the determination of} with the Gentlemen to whom I have referred It
