

Mount Pleasant, December 8th 1827.

My Dear Father

I now have an opportunity of writing to you, to let you know that we are both very well. I should like to see Mama, Grandmother, Uncle General, and all the children on Christmas. I like my school very much, and I learn Geography, Grammar, History, Writing and Arithmetic.
There are twenty six boarders at the Misses Delavans school. I send my love to Mama, Grandmother, Uncle General and all the children.
Miss Mary says I may soon begin to draw maps. I remain your affectionate daughter Catherine Van Dyke.
