

Summerside, Sunday Jan 9. 1848. In London Eng.

My dear Father.

Two years ago I made myself a New Year's present of the a copy of the accompanying volume on that beautiful poem the 23^d. I have found so much pleasure & profit in the frequent perusal that I thought I could not make a better selection. as a token of my affectionate remembrance at New Year. There is much in it peculiarly applicable to one in the decline of years.

Most truly Y^{rs}

Perce P. Smyth
Jan 1848

E. Smyth
Fannytown

Dear Mr. Smyth
Fannytown

W1378a

W1378b

and much of the same kind

which was the
cause of the war

which was the

cause of the war

which was the

cause of the war

which was the

cause of the war

which was the

cause of the war

which was the

cause of the war

which was the

cause of the war

which was the

cause of the war

which was the