Dear Sister Beekman

By the Indorse to Mr Vesie as also by the Draft of the Bond between him and me you find that am going to arbitration with him about the ground sold by father to East you find also by the Deposition of Mr. Van that he swears that he then confessed that the ground was paid for, and that two of her Daughters were present when she made that Confession. If such a thing was genuine its like you might have been one of them; I Pray you favour me to put upon paper what you remember of that matter, that either I or one more able may Draw up a Deposition to be sworn to by you, would not have been too soon to you with these Lines had I not received a Verball Message from Brother Beekman wherein Walter Smith said for Peter Folkenier to say that he would not receive any more of these Letters, if I live here may both accept upon Extraordinary occasions) because further trouble you to you; wherefore hope your good nature & love will excuse me doe once more pray your favour, time with the best assistance, in this affair; and Remain Rest & fully

A. S. after Perusal of the affectionate Brothers of Wesleys Letter Draft, humble Servant; of the Bond & Copy of the = Proposals for an amicable & Just & fair accommodation, please to = seal them up, and send =
