Dear Mama

We arrived here yesterday morning with the Philadelphia about 7 o'clock and found Aunt well but her house still out of order. Papa left here this morning at ten o'clock with the Rail Road car for Skinaetide. Aunt will accompany me home, we leave here tomorrow afternoon for New York and expect to be at Sing-Sing on Saturday with the Water Witch when I wish you would send the carriage for us and something for the baggage We dined yesterday at Mr S. Van Rensselaer I have not been out to day as it has rained all day Aunt joins me in love to you

Yours affectionate daughter Joanna
