

My dear Emma -

I am very sorry indeed to have misfolded you so often, and hope you will not go out of town without my seeing you - Cannot you come & spend any disengaged day with me and I will send you home in the evening with a safe escort in the carriage? - Your Aunt Colden said you did not leave here until next week and I shall hope you are not too busy to spare me a day - you need not send me word and if I should be out you can take a brisk Sunday yourself for a little while.

Yrs truly T. C.
