Henry Cuyler Jun^r

ag^t

William Walton
Plaintiff

In Case

Having heard the Parties fully to the matters in Difference between them referred to us by the Rule of Court (a copy of which is herewith annexed) we do award That the defendant do Pay to the plaintiff the sum of Two hundred Eighty and Two Pounds Thirteen Shillings and one Farthing New York Money with the Costs of Suit to be Taxed And that upon the Payment thereof each Party shall execute to the other a Release under their Several hands and Seals, of all matters in Difference between them in the said Cause for ever whereof we have herewith set our hands the Twenty Seventh day of October 1747.
