

I hope George informed you, that company prevented my answering your very friendly note my dear Mrs Nicholas. I am this moment at liberty. The Dr felt much better this morning & went out to make some professional visits. I am now anxiously expecting him at home, for Dr. Nelson tells me, he met with him, & he said he must return & go to bed again.
I fear he was imprudent to venture out this inclement day. I have not seen our friend since the party.
I hope D. W. will be well enough for us to "meet again" at W. Mary if not before. I wish for your sake I could make a pen Yours most cordially
Anne Watson
