

Dec. 10th,

Mr. Irving
My Dear Sir

Dear Sir

you that I was much surprised to learn from Mr Hunter that you intended making some stay at Macao =

Will you do me the favor to return soon and my dear Sir come and take up your abode with me I have Breakfast, Dinner, and Tea daily at all or either you will always be truly welcome. I have requested Mr Low to try several articles for me if he can send them up with Messrs Russell & Co. my wants are present and if the articles cannot be sent up soon why I had rather not have them The day up to 3 P.M. went off well Hunter came in and took a seat at the Breakfast table and done his duty as usual. There is nothing new my truly yours
