

If General Thelin van Coorhant inherited the farm at Corton Grove from the will of his Grand Father and had a right to divide ^{it} - In this case does Thelip G. van Wyck take for four years any more than the dwelling (mansion) House and farm, There being several dwelling Houses and Tenements rented by the late Genl Thelin van Coorhant included within the Purview of the Land, devised by him to his Mother Giorre and do not the rent of those Tenements belong to Giorre - These Tenements are northerly & easterly of the Old East Road and the Great Body of the Farm lies on the South & West of this Road - Do not the rent of these Tenements belong to Giorre. And ~~do~~ ^{are} not the fishing Places on the Beach also under his Control -

If Th. G. v. Wyck has the use & occupation of the House & farm, Is he not obliged to keep the Dikes around the Salt meadow in complete repair - & can he suffer the farm to be plowed ~~and sowed~~ & cropped on shares -

I beg Judge Spencer will also pay attention to the will & bequest of Genl Th. van Coorhant - In the first he devises certain Lands & Mills on the South Side of Corton Grove to Giorre C. van Wyck and others

Lands on the ^{same} South Side of Gordon River to his Mother & Sisters. In his Codicil he bequeaths These Cessions in his Will without making any distribution of the Estate — To whom do They belong — by referring to the Copy of Mr Van Beckhous Opinion The Judge will see what I wish him to pay his Attention —
