

Dear Sir

Albany 10th Nov. 1824

With this you will receive two copies of my Manual one of which I request you will accept for yourself, and the other you will please when convenient present to Mr Clinton together with the note addressed to him, and at the same time I will esteem it a favour if you will inform that gentleman (to whom I am a stranger) what you know respecting my standing in society particularly as a military man
I am Sir

Yours respectfully
P. C. Dyckman

No 8 Nassau Street
N. York

I shall be happy (when you can make convenient) to receive a communication from you expressing of your opinion respecting the work
