

Answers To Correspondents:

Agricultural Inquirer. -

No, you are wrong. The sand is not put in a chicken's crow for the purpose you name. Why do you continue to grope along in agricultural darkness & ignorance? Why do not you read authorities, & inform yourself. A glance at Mr. Greeley's good work on What he Knows About Farming would have taught you that the sand is put in the chicken's crow for ballast.

Salut
Mark Twain

