

My dear Emma -

I have been looking at two bibles, I have selected one for you, if you are not already supplied & if there is not anything else you would prefer. Tell me frankly whether you would prefer it, or let me give you the means of choosing for yourself.

You must have no reserve with me for my desire is to give you pleasure & to give to you & I like to depend upon you, for showing me how to do so - Y^r affectionate F. Colburn.

Cannot you come & see me any morning before half past 12.
& then I shall not be out - earlier even if you like to send in your name -

Miss Nicholas -
Green Street.
