

Henry J. De Bell 5th 1858

My dear Sir.

We learn Mr W H Tudor has placed in my hands a manuscript work which he is desirous I should examine You know how I am hurried and harassed at this moment. I will thank you ~~therefore~~ to get some one of your critical friends to look at the manuscript, with a kind and favorable eye, and that you will put the author in a way of bringing her ~~at~~ writings, if meritorious, in an advantageous way before the public

Yours very truly
Washington Irving
