

You recollect My dear Mr. Nichols that I was obliged to accept of beautiful hat conditionally - From the size of my band-box I feared at first that I should not be able to take it, and so it has proved I have turned, and turned, and calculated every inch of room; but I find space is still to be controlled as time; so that nothing remains to be done, but to relinquish my pretty head gear; and to assure you that I feel you to as much your debtor, as if I retained it. -

Let me again assure you that I leave you with great regret; and with impressions of your delightful qualities, & your unfeigned kindnesses, which nothing that I can enjoy in Boston will at all weaken.
Y. very truly
S. Edgewick
Mr. Nichols
