

just returned from a trip to the Highlands
- Loch Katrine.

Ellen's Isle.

Loch Lomond & Loch Lind. I looked many a beautiful spot in Loch Katrine.
I wish you could have stood with me
on the old Bridge at Edinburgh, where

I wish you could have seen the
"Banks of the Ayr"
- the Ayr. We kept there for the night - it is a very lovely spot and so there are no doubts but ourselves we could have seen the Ayr - the Ayr.

I am in excellent health which I attribute to drinking "Pulnatrator". You can get it at the Apothecists. It comes in Stone bottles.
It is wonderful for the Liver.
Don't fail to take it. About half a tumbler before breakfast.
It operates like medicine.
