The Board met, and the second Article relative to the placing of the College, was read in the minutes of the last preceding Board, Viz: That the College should not be erected at any other place than at New Brunswick, or in or near the Town of Tackensack, in the Precinct of New Barbadoes in the County of Bergen.

To which no objection was made.

The Board having taken the subscriptions and the reasons offered for and against both places, into due consideration; The Question was put,
 and carried for New Brunswick.
