

Miss Mary Jane Peale.
Pottsville.

April 1st, 1843.

"If life, were shumber on a bed of down, Soil unimproved,
Sad were our lot".

"Say if the soul immortal be
To ask its love immortal too"

"Eden's roses never fade
Eden's prospects know no shade"

"She kneels in the sunlit tent
Of all the truly great & innocent"

"That though I trace each flower & herb
That drink the morning dew
And I ask can Jehovah give
How vain were all I knew
