

My Dear Sister

I arrived here very safely yesterday afternoon but with a very bad headache found Clara & Eddie very well, the Dr had gone that morning to New York, after leaving you on Monday I walked up to Slous then took the Omnibus to Sarah I found her better than she was in the morning & she was able to lie down to tea, I did not feel it that night but think I must have taken cold for I woke up the next day with headache & sore throat however I got up and out some breakfast & came up pleased with her presents to the depot - where I found Eliza was delighted with my thanks all safe, checked the Photographs you sent them & got in the Cars all in the evening her best love and good time, by the time we say she will write to you got to Harlem it began to rain in a day or two. the rain it cleared up before we got were just the right thing & to New Haven & the Sun came she was also much pleased out but it soon cleared over with Rachel's work, she again but we had no more will send you the knitting rain, there was snow in letter when she writes, she the fields & the sides of the got your last letter but she road all the way & very was very busy at the time & high drifts in some places forgot it. Mrs Chappell & I cannot write you a very her children have been here long letter as my hands & spending a week. still aching, although. The women are very busy much better than it was trying in the New China of yesterday. it has been raining quilts at Grace. they are all day, Eliza is going down to be ready for Easter to church at 4 o'clock but will soon & tell me all I am not going out to day the news, the Gity I have Eddie was very much been hunting - the reins for her table to day. - I'm sure best love to all at home Your attached Sister Emma

Providence March 27th 1861

19
J. A. W. 1861