

To be Remembered

If James Chatterton makes the fence of as much Stone as is handy and Easy to be got, and the Rest with Rails, all along the Road by Joseph Knapp and the part of the fence that is between Haight's Land and mine and Keeps up the fences all Round the Asks Lot, and suffers no Waist or Trespass - then he can Stay on the place and Occupy the house untill April next and this settles all the Rent untill April 1899 -
