

The Road begins at a certain Cross Fence about 4 Rods North of the Farnace Byoods and runs as the fence now lays to between the house and barn where John Odell now lives from thence as the Road now runs to John Clark's house from thence to two white oak trees on Clark's Land thence to a walnut Tree on the land of Sampson Dychemans thence to a Walnut Tree on the line between said Dychemans Lott on the Lott of Jonathan Conclins thence to a Split Rock thence to a marked latten ball seplin thence to the house where the widow Harris now lives thence to the house of Benjamin McFords thence to the house of Henry Dees thence to the mill thence to the house of Samuel Pugsleys thence as the Road runs to Croadon River being in width two Rods or more as the case may require

A True Copy from the Record this 29th Septem^r 1700

Asth Strang Clerk

Pierre Van Cortlandt ^{Junr}

Sir it is with difficulty that I hold the pen hope you will be able to read it altho so badly wrote as to the wording I have no merit in it, I am yours

Jos: Tracy

1647

William Dyer
John Darnall