

Syr,

Albany March 14. 1811

Yours of the 17th enclosing the Military return was received this morning and as the Council were then in Session the Appointments were immediately passed.

Mr. Jones & Mr. Anderson were both appointed Justices of the peace, but Mr Anderson was not appointed Assistant Justice. He would have been so appointed had his name been mentioned to me before the Civil List was made out. But it may as well be left now until the summer Session of the Council when other appointments will probably be necessary for the County and but one Commission need be issued for the whole.

With sentiments of friendship
Respect
Yours &c.
