Dear Sir

Yesterday I received a few lines from our mutual friend Mr. Gerard G. Beckman in which he mentions that he had made several ineffectual applications to Mr. Dykman for two years past in arrears and requests that I would intercede for your interference in hopes that a word from you would induce him to make a speedy settlement. permit me to add the entreaties of the family, who join me in best respects to Mr. Catland. I have the honour to be

Dear Sir

Yours most humble Serv^t
