My Dearest beloved Child

I arrived safe and healthy as did your mother, at nine this morning after an agreeable passage of three days and found all our relations here in good health—

My Father accompanied her brother from Chelsea to Easton on Tuesday last, and he was to bring her to your house in about a fortnight after she left me, but as you are so greatly beloved by her, I am sure she would be greatly pleased to see you at Easton, especially to bring her to Plymouth, and if you can possibly do it, I very much wish you should go for her— If you do leave your horses at my house, and take mine either to your carriage or to mine to bring her to Albany—

I have entrusted all the keys to the Old Scotsman James Ford, so that if you remain a night at my house, he can give you what necessaries you may need

Pray let me know if Mr Lapping's son is to go to the falls, on what terms, and on what terms the right to construct the improved Lime Works is obtained—

Let your spouse & children participate with you in my love I am my dear Child ever your affectionate parent
