New York 18th Oct 1815

I Sir

I take the liberty to recommend to your attention the bearer, Matthew Corwin, who is an honest, industrious man, in very indigent circumstances, with a large family. He has a disposition to better his circumstances by removing to the Genesee Country, but is unable to proceed by reason of his poverty. He has received some assistance from the Members of the Society to which he belongs, and from other charitable disposed persons, but is still much behind hand. I am satisfied that your charity can not be better placed than by relieving his necessities.

Accept of my respects for you
& family -

I am Sir yours &c
Chas. Clinton
