Wm Van Cortlandt Jr
Beekmans Hill

Sir

Your favor of the 27th has duly received With your proposition for the sale of the Village Farm I have no objection to the sale if we can get its full value, but anxious to be paid. I wish to know what will be offered for it, preferring rather a division than parting with it under its full value. If you will be good enough to advantage it I will venture you may part of the printing expense. Respectfully I am

Yours sincerely

A. J. B. B. B.

Be good enough to say what you think its worth at once or the whole Farm

Beyard
