My Dearest Anne

I received your letter dated the 19 and was happy to hear Peirre was rather better, may the Lord remove his complaint and may we ^{soon} hear he is better, we will be very happy to see you all ^{the} ^{and} sooner the better for my anxiety about Walsh is great he is very weak, and quite absent, short of memory, Sally sent for me to day to know what she would do about sending for a Doct^r he does not complain and wont know he ails, thing Sally very much Distressed I have sent for George Mancius to get him to speak ^{him} to send for a Doct^r, the Business of the Church has affected him much both families soon in love to you & W^m V Cortland, kiss little Peirre for us

I remain My Dear Anne your affectionate Mother

My Dearest Mother

I received your letter dated the 19 and was happy to hear from you. I am better, may the Lord remove his complaint and may you soon be better. I am better, we will be very happy to see you and soon the better for my anxiety about what is going to be very much and quite about that of money, I hope that for me to say to know what the matter is about sending for a doctor he has not complained and would not know he will thing I hope very much. I hope that for George's business to get him to speak to him for a doctor, the business of the church has been him much. I hope that in time to get W. D. Gortman his little piece for us I remain, my dear friend, affectionately,
 Charles H. Johnson
