Dear Anne

Yesterday all your furniture was put on board the Sloop. St. Lawrence which I hope will come to land in good order notwithstanding it rains today as they were to be put on the hold in case of rain — I wrote you about a week since therefore suppose you will expect & be ready to receive the articles — I returned from Phil^a on Tuesday last & left all well — no news as yet of the folks but of course expect them every day — I now annex acf. —
