

Private

Affairs of winter with Mr. Duer.

Philadelphia y. 18th January 1790

Dear Sir,

I have received the favor of your Letter without date, suspecting the settlement of my private concerns with Mr. Duer: you may rest assured that I shall always feel happy to do anything which may afford you pleasure or satisfaction & that on this occasion in particular I shall most cheerfully conform to your wishes & recommendation: It is very probable I shall be able to go to New York next week, when I shall be more explicit on the Subject: at some time you'll permit me to add, that was it not for your interference I should not have altered my course, having deemed myself directed by the Deas, ~~particularly~~ during my late stay in New York.

I remain with every sentiment of Respectfull
esteem,

Dear Sir,

your most obedient &
very humble servant

Robert

Pray deliver the inclosed to Mr Deas.

A. Hamilton Esq.

The Honorable

Alexander Hamilton Esq:

Secretary of the Treasury of the United States.

residence of Mr. Champion. New York.

13 January 1792
John Mifflin
No. 4