

London, Sept. 7th 1831

My dear Sir,

Our worthy friend the Bishop of South Carolina left London about a month since on ~~his~~ brief tour previous to his embarking at Liverpool for the United States. I presume he is by this time well on his way across the ocean.
He could no doubt have properly acknowledged your kind recollection of him.
Should I by any chance revisit Scotland in the course of my wanderings it would give me great pleasure to avail myself of your hospitable invitation, in the mean time I wish you full enjoyment of your rural sports, and that you may long continue in health and vigour to follow them with zest and spirit

Believe me very dear Sir, with high regard very faithfully yours
