

Dear Sir,

Your Son The Colonel informed me that Pierre Van Wyck by your orders has obtain'd a Judgment against John Concklin for trespass, in running the line between you & The Estate of Catharine Vanplank, Deco'd, when the line was run, it was done by the information of those who lived on the land, but when I found it was not a true line, I desired Mr. Concklin to run it over to your satisfaction, which he informed me he did, & that you was satisfied with it.

I am sorry you have put the Estate to the Cost of a Suit, as it is taking a part of that little from my poor Sisters, which was left them by their Aunt, (which little) they are more in want of, than yourself, & when you had received no damage by them, they will be oblig'd to pay their proportion of the Expence accruing on the Suit, The cost of which will be paid when I go to Town, which will be in a few days. Mr. Van Wyck need not espouse out the Execution, as the business will be settled without more cost, from what Mr. Concklin told me. I expected ~~that~~ it was settled a long time ago as I have not heard a word from him about the business from that time to this.

It is good to write Mr. Van Wyck on the subject. I shall always wish a good understanding to remain between us. I remain Sir

Waplanck Point to
Aug. 4. 1809

Your most Obedt. Servt.

Philip Waplanck.

Pierre Van Cortlandt Esqr.

envelope

P. Van Portland Esq.
Croton

Shirley for Blank
August 4 1869
Letter