

Simmons Raymond of Sing-Sing has known all about Croton River and its fisheries, commenced fisheries in 1839, and has always known the water as far as Sing-Sing Brook to be Croton River, never heard of these waters as being part of Hudson River. Has always heard that Mr Van Cortlandt had full right of fisheries to Sing-Sing as owner of Croton River — Is certain that Mr. Name Mr. Moore and other residents live on Croton River not on Hudson River
March 17th '85

Simmons Raymond

The fishermen Raymond says when taking fish to sell to New-York or other market, taken from these rivers, always call themselves Croton fisherman, and claim these fish as superior;

He and others made Coan's Key join in our land, as it is and was an island,

S. Thompson

Crawbrook, N.Y.

1839 - That it

always an island

until he & his associates filled in between the island & main land -

in Clinton River -

Ref. to maps

Crawbrook