

Amboy Novm 26. 1784

Dear Sir; In your last by John Thompson; you informed, ^{me} that Mr Costland was sick at his farm and consequently, nothing could be done; till his arrival in Town. I hope he has recovered by this time. You requested Mrs Johnston and her Sister woud procure and send you what proof in their Power, of Mrs Barberus being a Good daughter to Mrs Beckman. They have done it, and enclosed you have a letter from Mrs Parker, that in our opinion, ~~that~~ puts the matter beyond any Doubt. Mrs Parker declares she is willing, to give the Executors of her Aunt Beckman, any other Satisfaction they may require in the Affair. My wife and Mrs Throckmorton are fully satisfied of your friend ly exertion in their favour. and that whatever may be due them from Mrs Beckmans estate be it ever so small, will come very acceptably to them.
This Day fortnight Mrs Johnston was bid of a Daughter, both the mother and child are like to do very well, The Ladies have concluded to Name it Gitty after its Grandmother and great Aunt. Mrs Johnston desires her best regards may be presented to your good family, as well as your very humble servant John L Johnson.

Doctor Corboan

1784
H. L. Johnson

11