

21 Pedigree of the Phillipse Family.
Copied by Miss Robinson Sent to the Kincks — March — 1808 —

Frederick Phillipse came to New York in 1658, which was at that time in possession of the Dutch, & call'd New Netherlands.
Governor Stuyvesant, came at the same time.
Frederick Phillipse, with his Wife, whose name was Margaret Saers, came also, with their two Sons, Philip aged two years, & Adolphus 6 months; — with money, plate, jewels &c.
They left East Ierland with the consent of the Prince, to take possession of a large purchase of Land he had made in the Province of N. York.
Philipsburgh, Fredericksburgh, Upper & Lower, with many houses he had purchased in the City of N. York, & land also there, which he laid out in Streets, & here he afterwards built a House, & settled in the Town, & he built the House of Philipsburgh. — His eldest Son Philip was of a very delicate constitution, & his Father sent him to Barbadoes to reside on an Estate he had in that Island, call'd Spring Head; he was 18 when he went there, & had just lost his Mother; his health was soon restored, & he married at the age of 22, Miss Mary Sparks, youngest Daughter of the Gov^r of that Island; the Gov^r had married a Miss Joyce Farmer, & had 4 Daughters; 2 married their Parents to Barbadoes, the other two remained as his Estate in Worcestershire - Mr Farmer this Wife married Mrs Sparks & the West Indies, when Philip married Miss Sparks, they resided with Mr Farmer, who had no family of his own; in the first year of Philip's marriage, he had a Son, who was named after his Gr. Father, Frederick Phillipse, when he was 6 months old his Father died, & within the year his young Widow followed him to an early grave. When Fred^d Phillipse was two years old, his grandfather sent for him to New York, & ordered the Spring Dead Estate to be sold immediately, which it was, for 10,000 £ Sterling, for fear it should be an inducement to his Grandson to return to that Island. - This offended his Mother's Relations, & Mr Farmer, who was very rich & very fond of his Grand Nephew, intended him for his Heir at his death, which occurred soon after losing his Niece, & he left it all to his Sister, Mrs Sparkes & her Daughters, & only a legacy of 10,000 £ to old Frederick Phillipse; soon after married his Son married Catherine Courtland, youngest of Jacobus Van Courtland's nine Daughters, he had no family by her, & she died in a few years; her Husband died also in 1692 leaving his large property to his Son Adolphus who was a confirmed old Bachelor, & his Grandson, Philipsbury, & the property in New York; when he was eight & twenty he married Joanna Brockhous, youngest Daughter of the English Governor of that Province; he was the 4th Governor after it was ceded to Great Britain; he was of an old Norman Catholic family from Lancaster & married in America, Susanna Maria Schreicht, daughter of Paulus Schreicht, who came from West Treveland, & had purchased a large Property in New Jersey; & his Daughter Susan, on her marriage with Anthony Brockhous he gave the Rensselaer Estate in that Province; he had 4 Daughters, & one Son, who was named after his Father; he remained unmarried, but his Daughters all married, except the eldest Mary; Judith married Henry Vintator Anne married Philip Breckin, & Joanna married Fred^d Phillipse; several of their older children died, but they had 5 to grow up, the youngest of these, Margaret died of a consumption at 18, Frederick Phillipse died at 52 of rheumatic Gout, only his eldest Daugh^r Susannah was married to Beverley Robinson Esq^r of Virginia; he left his Property as follows; Philipsbury with the Chief part of his Houses in New York, & his eldest Son if he did not marry, to his 2nd Son Philip, & if he did marry, & had only daughters, they were to save for them, what they could; Philipsbury wastage to his own Daughters Susannah & Mary. after his death, his Uncle Adolphus died, & left his Property Fredrickstown Highlands, & some other lands in the upper province, to his sons Stephen Philip Phillips, & then to Susanna & Mary Phillips, if either died without Children it was to be equally divided amongst the Survivors. Fredrick Phillips married Elizabeth Buttquods Widow, Daugh of Charles Williams Esq.

Philip married Margaret Marsden, Susanna married Beverly Robinson Esq; she was born Sept. 20th 1727 & is living at this present time 1808 & has a large family of Grandchildren, & great Grandchildren; Mary was born in 1730 & married in 1758 Lieut. Col. Roger Morris, & is also living.
She has Children, & G. Children. The rest of the descendants of Gov. Brockhurst, remained in America after the Revolution. Little is known of Mr & Mrs Vanvaster; They had a Son & Daughter — Mrs French died young leaving four daughters, who were brought up by her Maiden Sister Mary Brockhurst; The eldest Mary Susanna married W^m Livingston Esq of Jersey, Anna married David Vanhoose of New York, Mary married David Clarkson Esq of New York, & Mary married W^m Brown Esq of Boston.)

+ of some such name; I cannot be certain that all the names are spelt right. They are so outlandish, & the hand so difficult to read
