My dear Mr. Head Esq

Dear Sir

Having been applied to again by Watkins for the settlement of the Inman of Satons which I purchased of him, upon the strength of your offer to make me the necessary advances, which is I thoroughly understood were to be to the amt of $1000, yesterday, made application to Mr Coolidge, requesting that you had directed him, in case of my being engaged for payment, to make me the necessary advances.

I must confess I was, not a little astonished at his replying that you had merely stated to him that I had applied to you for money to pay for an Inman, and that you declined making the advance stating at the same time, that you had already made me one of $500, leaving him to infer that this money was advanced to me at my request, which you are perfectly aware was never made by me, but was of your own gratuitous offering. You must be conscious that I would never have purchased these goods, had I not the prospect of paying for them, as well as, that I at no self had no means to do so and depended wholly, upon your offer.

I regret as much that it should have been necessary to address you upon this subject, but feeling
