

Mr Cortlandt

New Orange Nov: 16th 1763

Sir

agreeable to your Desire for Mr Kiens I send you your account I would have waited on you and Mrs Cortlandt with my wife before now if my hurry in business had not hindered me neither would I have send your account for Mr Kiens if necessity ~~did~~ for Cash on account of my works which are ready to go in a few days did not force me to ~~apply~~ in order to discharge my workmen I hope you will excuse the liberty I take on that account if it is not convenient to you to discharge the same I must do as well as I can but if you can help me you will greatly oblige me I would not apply to you if I could possible do without; I don't expect to have the pleasure of waiting on you & Mrs Cortlandt and the rest of your little flock before Spring after which I hope for a longer visit if you have the leisure hammer strike you may depend that we are a making of grow. My wife joins with me in compliment to you & Mrs Cortlandt Miss Peggy if she is with you and your little flock and am with sincere esteem -

Sir

your most humble servant
J. Doyall
