

1.
My dear Willie

Saturday 9. a.m.
New York June 15. 1833

I have this moment learnt that the New London has cleared much to my surprise as I understood she was not to sail until a week at least after the Monson which cleared yesterday and sails this morning - we write to you by the Monson, and sent a small case with clothes and a paper parcel with the books & a pair boots by her yesterday - but I cannot let the husband go without a line tho in the utmost hurry - we are all well at home and overhead and ears in house cleaning Aunt Paris continues to improve in health - Selzer went up to her this morning with Miss Maria Fendenburg and her sister Margaret - they will quarten at Mearns Whites further summer if they are pleased. Pierre has this moment got in town on a hasty visit his family are well except the youngest which is a little under the weather.

I mentioned in my letter by the Ansonia that we had accounts after the death of Mr. Pomey at your cousin Jas P. Duggan's Wilkesboro' N.C. - Jas. this wife and her sister Eliza & Helen are expected here shortly - We have had exciting times occasioned by the Pomey sister - he left for New Haven this morning -

Look well about you and ascertain what can be done for Sanders and the promotion of the family interest

Look well to yourself - and by oblige ment & faithfulness make yourself master of the house to which you have come -

Assure yourself of my frequent, fervent prayer to the Father of all our Mercies for your health and welfare

In great haste but say affectionately

Yours Wm. D. Irving
