

Miss Nicholas

Dear Emma

Mamma is better this morning, but is not able to leave her bed. She now shows the effects of her indisposition, and has been very faint, yet she insists upon my going this evening. I shall be delighted to have you accompany me and will give you a seat in our sleigh at seven with the greatest pleasure

Yours truly Eliza L. Weston