

Canton January 16. 1835

Dear Henry,

I wrote you on Sunday last, and gave the letter in charge to Mr Roddick, who takes passage in the "Lugor", by which vessel I send this. — Since then, nothing new has transpired. The boat I am to sail from New York for this place about the 1st of September: the Roman in all that month & early in October —

The Moroccan and Sackin are now loading — the first, as also the Egyptian will leave in all this month for New York — Fine Furs are not to be had, in any quantity; Common furs are abundant & cheap — I send enclosed a price current, which may prove interesting —

Mr Forbes has been under the weather for several days: scarcely leaving his room — I hope he will be better shortly or w^l shall he short handed —

I hand you herewith copies of several Bills which, with the exception of Edward Vellut Miß

Loona fled like faying, till they are passed up by Lou -

C. MaBrock

Nov: 27. 1 Rattle Brandy. . . . 75

R. MaBrock & Co

July 21. 1 Rattle Brandy 3.00

Octo: 21. 1 Black Beaver Hat 9 12

I spoke to Vandenberg, about the Brandy which Lou returned - but he did not seem inclined to receive the explanation in payment of his bill -

Robt Edwards -

Nov: 8. 1 1/4 yards Black Cloth 10/ 12.50

The price of this seems higher to me, than you named tho' the amo. of the Bill is what you told me -

Sam Ray makes a claim for washing some 120 pieces of clothes - Can it be that you owe you so many? I think you settled not long since - please let me know by first opportunity, about these things -

Very Sincerely, Your Friend

A. K. M.
