

May 13th 1825

Dear friend

Just received a letter from Uncle General on the 13^{ist} in which he desired me to write to you and let you know that he was well and expected to be at Albany the 21st of this month and from here to New York and so to Croton.

We are both well. Aunt joins with me in love to you all

Your affectionate daughter

Joanna Van Wyck

Frances Van Wyck

1823-

School

Dear Mother

I have just received a letter from you dated on the 13th in which you desired me to write to you and know that the news will be expected to be the 21st of this month and from here to New York and to Boston.

Dear Mother well. I am just now in love to you

Dear affectionate
daughter

Frances Van Wyck