

To Genl Philip Van Cortlandt

The President of the United States having ordered a General Court Martial for the Trial of Gen. Hull, and it being suggested that your Evidence will be material in the case, I am authorized and directed to Summon you immediately to appear, on behalf of the United States, before the General Court Martial, at the City of Albany, in the State of New-York.

I am further authorized to assure you, that the reasonable expences of your journey to, and at the place of Trial, and back, will be paid by the United States.

Albany, ~~January~~ ^{February} 26th 1814.

Philip Parker

Judge Advocate in the Army of the United States.

Judge Advocate in the Army of the United States.

Attest, January 12th.

with be paid by the United States.

pieces of your journey to, and at the place of trial, and back, I am further authorized to assure you, that the respondents are.

Attorney, at the City of Albany, in the State of New York.
appear, on behalf of the United States, before the General Court
I am authorized and directed to summon you immediately to it being suggested that your presence will be material in the case, before the Court Martial for the Trial of Gen. Hall, and The President of the United States having ordered a ge-

1
Genl Philip Van Cortlandt
General

1814
Genl Van Cortlandt
Saml. H. Miller

to the Genl